

Surprise Singers: May 2015

Surprise Singers are a great option for a high impact, entertaining end to a conference dinner, Christmas Dinner or entertaining your team. Your guests will be surprised, laugh, clap and join in the fun. The interactive entertainment is bespoke to your event and if required, the singers will target specific people as part of the fun!

The buzz after the act is amazing! The singers could either be 'surprise guests' who dine with the clients and then burst into song at a specific moment, or they could come on for a normal performance. We can target specific guests (such as the MD of the company, or the 'joker' in the office). Our singers are all professionals who either sing with the main UK Opera companies or in West End Shows. The songs they perform are all well known songs from musicals and classic pop songs (eg Frank Sinatra).

Our singer, disguised as the banqueting manager, bursts into song.

A tramp arrives at a wedding reception and complains that the marquee is unsafe. The bridegroom's company provides marquees! The two waiters and the tramp are 'surprise' singers.

"The Tramp went down a treat! I could see guests were confused by a tramp lurking outside the church. Then when he appeared at the reception, a few of my male friends thought they needed to intervene. Of course my husband was able to reassure them, but it added to the surprise of the act. The singers were incredible and they had us in tears when they sang "Con te partiro", and up and singing for the rest of the act. Thanks ever so much." CW April 2013

"The guests all thought they were getting a disco as one of the musicians was asking them what music they liked, completely threw them off the scent, I had to smile to myself. What our clients say about us:

I had the pleasure to meet the team from Viva Live Music in the spring of 2011. They seemed a perfect fit to assist in the co-ordination and direction of our hotel events calendar for that year. From our first encounter with Susan it was clear that her attention to detail and sheer wealth of knowledge of music styles and production would allow us to be in very safe hands. Our clients are among some of London's most discerning and we were glad to have a team such as Viva Live Music on board to assist us in exceeding their expectations.

Following on from a flawless mix of entertainment and enjoyment throughout 2011 we were delighted to instruct them as our partners to produce our well renowned Al-Fresco Opera through the summer of 2012. We are confident of equivalent success and look forward to working with Susan and her team for years to come. I have no reservations about recommending them to anyone who wants their event to have that special touch of class, sophistication and above all thorough enjoyment. Simon Drake, F & B Director, Taj Hotels

"Right through from the planning process to delivery at our conference in Manchester in September 2013, I found Susan to be professional, dedicated and determined to produce exactly what we wanted on the night. We weren't disappointed! Many thanks!" Russ Jordan - RSS.

"To have such passion to serve is so rare and particularly with a big company like Sky we rarely see it – so I believe that Viva Live Music and particularly Susan Wright should be an excellent candidate for the WOW award." Samantha Beresford, BSKyB.

Thank you so much for your help and assistance in putting my annual calendar of events together for 2012, it is always such a pleasure discussing our entertainment requirements with you. It's so refreshing to partner with a company like Viva Live Music, who have a genuine passion for making each of my events a success. It would be wonderful if some of the other companies I deal with on a regular basis, would take a leaf out of your book when it comes to customer care and understanding the needs and expectations of a venue such as Hanbury Manor."

Susan was so keen to ensure that the band & music for our event was spot-on, I very quickly was confident to trust her entirely and leave all of the music direction to her - and the event was perfect!
